

Patawomeck Tribal Scholarship Application

The Patawomeck Indian Tribe of Virginia recognizes the importance of post-secondary education, its challenges, and the benefits it provides to both those who pursue it and the Tribe.

To demonstrate its importance and assist our tribal citizens in all stages of higher education, a Tribal Scholarship of $500 may be awarded to applicants seeking financial assistance.

To apply, simply use the format below and complete questions 1 – 9, then return the completed application via email to: patawomecktribalcenter@gmail.com by 5 PM on April 9, 2025.

Incomplete applications or applications received after 5 PM on April 9, will not be considered. Awardees will be notified by email. Best wishes to you as you endeavor to achieve your educational goals*.

Sincerely,
Patawomeck Tribal Scholarship Committee

* Some schools will match a tribal scholarship, i.e., Virginia Tech. Check with your school to see if they have Native American/Indigenous waivers or match funds provided by tribes. Inform the scholarship committee of your school's requirements. Deadlines may apply.
